PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

5

In approximately eight weeks we will be installing new officers at our installation banquet. So many people have done so much to improve our Museum that I won't attempt to name them. We have added showcase lights, lowered the ceiling lights and improved the showcases just to mention a few of the changes.

We contacted the City Managers office to inquire about the grant that we are soon to receive and learned that the situation is progressing nicely. Any dealings we have had with our city have always been the best. The people there are always most helpful.

For those of you who are not aware of what the grant is all about, we are planning an addition to the Museum in order to improve all departments. The money has been approved by the city of New port Richey.

Our Museum is one of the cultural assets of this city and we should all strive to maintain our high standard of quality. Our Curator, Adele Gregos changes displays on an average of every other month. Unfortunately some of us do not appreciate how much Adele and Andy do for us.

REPORT OF THE CURATOR

As we come to the close of our ninth season, I believe that we all can be proud of the beautiful and cultural exhibits which have been showcased in our Museum! They have each created much interest.

The antique toy collection of Ralph Balsam, and the match-box collection of Kathi Balsam will finish the year in fine style.

Please be mindful of any articles or collections which you or your friends would share for a month or two.

Remember, the Museum is as interesting as we make it. Let our tenth year be a banner year!

ADELE GREGOS, Curator

MEMBERSHIP

Our records show there are members who have let their membership in the West Pasco Historical Society run out.

The Society is supported only by dues and the Ways-and-means projects. We have lost many members and membership is down 40%. If you have not paid your dues for 1992, will you reconsider - we need your support.

Next year, 1993 will be the Historical Society's 20th Anniversary and the Museum's 10th Anniversary.

ODE TO A VOLUNTEER

Many will be shocked to find
When the day of judgment nears
That there's a special place in heaven
Set aside for volunteers.
Furnished with big recliners,
Satin couches and footstools
Where there's no committee chairman
No group leaders or car pools.
No eager team that needs a coach
No bazaar and no bake sale
There will be nothing to staple
Not one thing to fold or mail.
Telephone lists will be outlawed
But a finger snap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners
And rare treats fit for a king.
You ask, who'll serve these privileged few
And work for all they're worth?
Why, all those who reaped the benefits
And not once volunteered on earth.
